

ONE HEART PROJECT

HOPE FOR A SECOND CHANCE

A man is shown from the chest up, sitting on a bench inside a prison cell. He is looking out through the black metal bars of the cell. His expression is one of despair and hopelessness. The lighting is dim, creating a somber and oppressive atmosphere. The background is slightly out of focus, showing the interior of the cell.

IMAGINE FEELING HOPELESS AND ALONE...

With no one to turn to for help.

The Crisis

- 1.3 million youth are arrested every year in the U.S.
- 100,000 youth are housed in detention facilities at any given time
- 1280 juvenile detention facilities in the U.S.
- $5.7 billion is spent by states every year on juvenile corrections
- $148,000 per year to house 1 youth

90% of these youth come from single parent homes

40% are under age 16

70% are rearrested within 3 years of release

Our Mission

The One Heart Project builds long-term, life-changing relationships with youthful offenders and provides them with the skills, tools and healthy relationships needed to experience a true second chance, change their trajectory, and equip them to successfully navigate a productive life.
